Part-Time Minister – Recruitment

Milton Keynes Alliance Church ("MKAC") is seeking to appoint a Part-Time Minister to join our pastoral team.

About MKAC

MKAC is a Chinese Christian Church serving the Hong Kong Chinese community in Milton Keynes, UK. We are part of the Chinese Alliance Churches Union (UK) with the aim of spreading the gospel throughout our community in the UK.

MKAC was founded in 2023. The whole congregation averages 280 in its current worship service including children. As the Church continues to grow and develop, we are looking for a minister who shares our commitment to biblical faith, pastoral ministry and the spiritual growth of God's people, and proclaim the gospel.

For further information, please refer to our website: mkac.net.

About the Role

The successful candidate will work closely with the Minister-in-Charge and pastoral team, with particular responsibility for pastoral care and ministry among adults, with a particular focus on women and families.

Main Responsibilities

The main job responsibilities outlined below are indicative and may be reviewed and amended by mutual agreement in response to the needs and development of the Church:

1. Provide pastoral care and spiritual support to church members, particular adults, women and families.
2. Promote discipleship and nurture believers in their spiritual growth.
3. Participate in preaching during worship services, teaching the Bible, and nurturing the spiritual growth of the congregation through fellowship groups and pastoral care.
4. Work collaboratively with the pastoral team, church ministry leaders and volunteers making every effort to support the overall ministry and development of the Church and maintain the unity of the Church.
5. Participate in evangelism, mission and community outreach, including opportunities to share the gospel with people from diverse cultural and religious background.
6. Undertake other pastoral and administrative responsibilities reasonably associated with the role.
